

Weekly Prayer Plan – Sharing Your Testimony

How to Use this Template:

Download and save this document to begin using at the beginning (Monday) of every week. Every week will have different bible verses to meditate on based on the Faith Fight Podcast episode topic for that week. Determine the time and place that you will devote to prayer. The below structure is set for one hour and is only used as a guide. You can adjust your timing if necessary.

Time: _____

Place: _____

5 min – Drawing Near To God

5 min – Confession

10 min – God-Centered Petitions

10 min – Intercessory Prayer

10 min – Personal Petitions

15 min – Meditation

5 min – Praise, Thanksgiving & Closing

1. DRAWING NEAR TO GOD - Matt. 6:9 “This, then, is how you should pray: “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name”

God the Father is the focus of all our prayers. We should never forget what a privilege it is to bend our knees on earth and reach almighty God in heaven.

2. CONFESSION - Matt. 6:12 “Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us”

When we repent and forgive others, we maintain fellowship with God. But if we hold grudges, that fellowship is broken. God loves to answer our prayers when the lines of communication are not disrupted.

3. GOD CENTERED PETITIONS Matt 6:10 “Your kingdom come. Your will be done, On earth as it is in heaven.”

Prayer should reflect a desire to align ourselves with God’s goals and purposes, not to get Him to follow our plans.

4. PERSONAL PETITIONS Matt 6:11 “Give us today our daily bread.”

We are dependent upon the Lord for our needs and He wants us to come to Him with our requests.

5. MEDITATION Joshua 1:8 “Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful.”

Meditation is thinking about the word of God to understand what it means in the context of the scripture and how it can apply to your life today. The Word of God is powerful enough to still be relevant in your life today even though it was written thousands of years ago.

Read through the scripture passages for today as listed below:

Meditational Verses

Monday: 1 Peter 3:13-22

Tuesday: - Daniel 3-4

Wednesday: Revelation 12:10-12

Thursday: Romans 10:5-21

Friday: Mark 5:1-20

Saturday: Luke 8:26-39

Sunday: Psalm 107:1-43

Once you have read the scripture for today, write down your answer to the questions below or any other insight/revelation that you receive in your prayer journal.

1. Is there a promise to claim?
2. Is there a lesson to learn?
3. Is there a blessing to enjoy?
4. Is there a command to obey?
5. Is there a sin to avoid?
6. Is there a new thought to carry with me?

6. PRAISE & THANKSGIVING 1 John 5:14-15 “This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. And if we know that he hears us—whatever we ask—we know that we have what we asked of him.”

We can end our prayer time with confidence that God has heard our prayer and will answer in His perfect timing. Demonstrate your faith in Him by showing thanks before you see the answer to your prayers.

Notes & Bible Verses – Sharing Your Testimony

If we keep all the good that God has done in our lives to ourselves, then it would be that much harder to spread the good news about Jesus to others. The fact is that sharing your testimony to others is essential to successful Christian living. It is also one of the easiest ways to testify to others how good God has been to you.

It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has done for me. - Daniel 4:2

As your prosperity increases remember to share what God has done for you. Share the miracles that you have experienced so that the world and unbelievers will know. These verses come right after God delivered the three Hebrew boys from the fiery furnace.

But in your hearts honor Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect, having a good conscience, so that, when you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ may be put to shame. - 1 Peter 3:15-16

Gods is not looking for spectators but for those who will live for their king with righteousness and then give testimony about him with gentleness and respect.

And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death. - Revelation 12:11 ESV

One way that we can have victory over the enemy is to share our testimony. The blood of Jesus makes us righteous and since we are made righteous there is no argument that can be made against us as we share our testimony. In addition to that, we can't be afraid of what others will think when we share our testimony. So just be bold and share when the opportunities arise.

And he did not permit him but said to him, "Go home to your friends and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you." - Mark 5:19 ESV

Given this mans past, he was probably a well known person. Those who knew him needed to hear his testimony to know what happens when the kingdom of God comes into a persons life. The people in your life need to hear what Jesus has done for you so share your testimony with others.

How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? -

Romans 10:14

We must take God's great message of salvation to others so that they can respond to the good news. How will your loved ones and neighbours hear about Jesus unless someone tells them? Share what Jesus has done in your life to others today.

Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for him. - Luke 8:39

Jesus knew that this man would be an effective witness to those who knew his previous condition. When God touches your life don't be afraid to share the wonderful events with your family and friends.

Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will tell what he has done for my soul. - Psalm 66:16

The Psalmist concludes by sharing his praise with the congregation for God's answer to his prayer. He confesses that this deliverance would not have happened if he had held onto sin in his heart. Sharing this kind of testimony with others is also important because others can learn from it.

Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he has redeemed from trouble - Psalm 107:2 ESV

God has done so much for us and we have so much for which to thank him for. He wants us to tell everyone all that he has done. So think back of all the good things that God has done for you and ask yourself is there someone that you can tell about it today?
